09:50 – 10:30 Panel: State of the UK invoice finance and ABL market: trends, risks and opportunities

Despite the challenges of the pandemic, the IF/ABL industry in the UK has demonstrated resilience and growth. Sales volumes, advances, and the sector's contribution to GDP continue to increase. Although the number of users dropped by approximately 15% during the pandemic, is this metric the only notable exception to an otherwise positive trend?

- Presentation of UK Finance statistics on invoice finance and ABL data. Insights into customer behavior, industry performance, competitive behavior and market trends.
- Examining trends over the last 10 years. What has changed and why?
- How trends in supply, demand and current events drive current industry performance?
- The impact of eInvoicing, data and digital supply chains.
- Why collaboration and connectivity are a must?
- Current market awareness and perception for IF/ABL products, drivers and main selling points.
- Five-year forecast: Expected trends, economic factors and ongoing environmental events that drive the industry's outlook

Moderator:

Alex Waterman, Principal, Invoice Finance & Asset Based Lending; Commercial Finance, UK Finance

Speakers:

Lee Hopley, Director of Economic Insight and Research, UK Finance

Ellen Leith, CEO, Purchase to Pay Network (PPN), Co-Founder, UK eInvoicing Advocacy Lab

Agenda

10:30 – 11:20 Panel: A broad view from the practitioners – responding to economic outlook

Business finance leaders are working towards becoming more efficient in managing uncertain economic times ahead. This session will explore if invoice finance and ABL is providing sufficiently innovative solutions and flexibility during times of financial instability.

- Is there more that SMEs can do in leveraging invoice finance to gain access to working capital?
- What do practitioners perceive is the main reason for the static user numbers?
- Is there more that practitioners can do in helping SMEs to gain access to working capital?
- What trends in flexible funding options are we seeing in today's market?
- To what extent can technology providers help to drive adoption of digital solutions? Real life examples.

Agenda

16:45 – 17:55 Join the Debate!

Engage in an open and interactive dialogue on a topic of your choice. Join a roundtable and contribute with your perspectives and ideas.

This exciting format fosters a dynamic exchange of viewpoints whilst promoting a deeper understanding of market issues.

Each 40 min session will be led by a facilitator that will present a 5 min summary of the exchanges at the conclusion of the roundtable.

Roundtable 1: What customers really want, even if they don't tell you?

Understanding what truly drives their decisions. Exploring why statistics show that banks fall behind other brands in meeting customer expectations and how to overcome barriers to digital transformation progress.

Roundtable 2: Strategizing ahead:

Best practices for navigating new e-invoicing regulations in the UK to ensure compliance and operational efficiency.

Roundtable 3: Supply vs demand

The UK IF/ABL market has been static, in terms of client numbers, over the last few years. How do we get the industry growing again? Increased commoditisation, IT enhancements, simpler products for a greater range of businesses, better client experience etc. have all been suggested but can demand be increased?

Roundtable 4: The digital age opens new opportunities for fraud.

As fraud risks continue to evolve, the strategies to fight fraud must evolve as well. What is the new fraud triangle and how do we ensure we remain hyper-vigilant to the risk of fraud?

Roundtable 5: Is ABL the next big opportunity?

Debunking common myths and misconceptions while uncovering the new potential benefits of ABL. Exploring the increasingly creative financing structures driving its growth and the factors behind its rising popularity, as well as the challenges businesses face in scaling ABL effectively.

Summary of key roundtable findings
